

In The Service

Reserve Promotes East Liberty Officer

An East Liberty Army Reserve officer was promoted to lieutenant colonel during recent ceremonies at 99th Army Command (ARCOM) Headquarters, Mount Lebanon.

Lt. Col. George N. Charlton Jr. of 1714 Lincoln Ave., was presented his silver wings by ARCOM commander John H. McLain.

Charlton, who is a battalion commander at ARCOM, was drafted into the Army as a private in 1943.

In civilian life, he is assistant executive director of Pittsburgh Model Cities.

He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity, St. Cyprian-Alpha Lodge No. 13, F&AM and the board of management of the Homewood-Brushston YMCA.

Charlton

fall are enrolled in the Army Reserve during the orientation to help them decide on an Army career.

Miss Sullen, who attends Carnegie Mellon University, will be placed on active duty during her senior year if she is accepted for the WAC student officer program.

Women in the program receive full pay and allowances during the school year.

* * *

M-Sgt. Anthony A. Ciorra of 6336 Aurelia St., East Liberty, recently was presented the Pennsylvania Commendation Ribbon for distinguished service with the 28th Signal Battalion, Pennsylvania National Guard.

* * *

T-Sgt. Dennis A. Ferry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony

Clipped By:

rtcrockett
Mon, Dec 3, 2018